NO MAPS BOUGHT FOR CITY SCHOOLS IN TWENTY YEARS

No Supplemental Books Have Been Purchased in Last Half Dozen Years.

Advise That They Should be Added to Equipment.

HIS REPORT OF ATTENDANCE

Supt. J. A. Carnagey made two interesting reports to the school board last night. In the first one he says:

"In compliance with your request, I have investigated the matter of purchasing maps and supplementary books for all of the schools of the city. There are nine buildings. We need one set of outline geographic maps for each building. We need also, two sets of history maps, one for the purpose of teaching United States history and one set for the use of the history and Latin departments in the High school. These sets comprise eight maps each. We can get a medium priced set of outline maps for $24. This is just one-half the regular list price, and for the standard maps, I should advise the putting in of one large set in the Broadway school. This set can be purchased for $55."

The various book firms will make us a 20 per cent deduction from list prices on First, Second and Third readers. The First readers we can get for 25¢ each, the second for 24¢ each and the third for 30¢ each. We need 19 sets of First readers, 25 books in the set; 18 sets of Second readers of 25 books each, and 15 sets of Third readers. The maps will cost $225, the supplementary books will cost $280 or a total of $575.50, or an average of about $64 to the building. This, in view of the fact that no maps have been purchased for the use of the schools for possibly fifteen or twenty years, and no supplementary books for the last six or eight years, is certainly a moderate cost for such things. Our work in geography and history has been hampered this year for the need of maps. In fact, a teacher cannot do satisfactory work in either of these subjects without maps. Reading I regard as the basal study in the primary grades, and we cannot do the work that we should without more reading matter, and we cannot well ask parents to buy more than the state has authorized. I am very sorry to say that most of our adopted books which we are in a measure compelled to use, are as much behind the times as a scythe is behind an up-to-date mowing machine, or an oxcart is behind an automobile as a revengeance."

"I wish to recommend that before the opening of schools in September, the superintendent be authorized to see that the schools are provided with the maps and supplementary readers herein provided for."

The Attendance.

In his report he says in part: "The total enrollment in the schools date of 3,771 or 29 more than during the entire year of 1906-07. This, too, in spite of the fact that the enumeration of the present year is less than the enumeration of last year. This is an encouraging condition, as it shows that the people are appreciating the schools and are sending more of their children. There are still far too many children of Paducah of school age who are not deriving any benefit from the schools because they are not enrolled. The creation of a good school sentiment is one of those things for which I am continually striving."

"There have been in the month 2,288 children enrolled. The average daily attendance is 2,757, a decrease of 56 from February, due, as I said before, to the mumps. In the matter of tardiness we are improving. The number of cases in March was 473, a decrease of 89 from February. The number of cases of corporal punishment was six, five of these being in the colored schools. The number of cases of truancy was eight, and the number of suspensions two. There are twenty-six tuition pupils in the schools."

"The health of the teachers has been fairly good. Miss McBroom was out nine and one-half days on account of illness; Miss Ford was sick one week, and Miss Wilcox was out one week on account of trouble with her eyes. Three other teachers were absent one-half day each. The entire time lost by all teachers for the month was 22 days. All these items are specifically shown on the statistical report handed to the secretary."

G. C. McClain and Clarence Phillips, well known business men of Murray, were here last night.

Results of Local Option Contests in Illinois Towns and Counties Yesterday Considerably Mixed.

Larger Cities Generally Voted to Retain Licensed Saloons, While Country Places Voted Them Out.

Chicago, April 8.—In the local option elections held in 120 townships in the 82 counties of Illinois outside of Chicago 20 counties became absolutely anti-saloon territory and 1,569 or about one-half of the total number of counties in that territory were voted out of business. Most of the larger cities, however, voted in favor of retaining the saloons. The following counties are now anti-saloon territory, so created by the voters yesterday:

Boone, Montezuma, Fayette, Hamilton, Edgar, Clark, Brown, Saline, Gallatin, Douglass, Macon, Cumberland, Piatt, Shelby, Coles, White, Wayne and McDonough.

Chicago City Elections.

Chicago, April 8.—The Republicans made a gain of ten aldermen in the election in Chicago. The new council contains 14 Republicans and 26 Democrats.

The present council contains 35 Democrats, one Independent Democrat, and 34 Republicans.

Although the question of Sunday closing of saloons was turned from the ballot by court action, the United States for local self-government gained a victory, inasmuch as but a few of the 70 aldermen who will compose the new council, they declared are opposed to the society's platform favoring personal liberty.

Of the townships in Cook county where the saloon question was at issue, Hanover, Maine, Prayville, Worth, and Thornton voted in favor of the saloon; and Riverside against saloons. The vote on the proposition to issue $2,000,000 county bonds to build a new infirmary was overwhelmingly in the affirmative.

Murphysboro Wet.

Murphysboro, April 8.—Fourteen of the sixteen townships in Jackson county were won by the anti-saloon forces. Murphysboro went wet by 139 majority. Grand Tower was the only other town in the county going anti-saloon.

SALARIES.

Washington, $150; Franklin, $140; Lee, $85; Jefferson, $85; Longfellow, $85; McKinley, $85; Whittier, $75; Lincoln, $70; Garfield, $60.

All the old principals of the public schools, who applied for positions, were re-elected by the school board last night. Professor F. W. Frazee, of the Franklin building, and Professor Rudolph, of the Whittier building, did not seek re-election, and Professor John J. Gaines, connected with the Newport schools, and Professor Herman L. Donnivan, of Bowling Green, a teacher in the state normal school, were selected.

Salaries were fixed for the year. Teachers will be elected at the May session of the board.

It was decided that the graduates this year shall wear caps and gowns at commencement and that no presents shall be allowed in the building, where the exercises are held. The old plan of wearing expensive graduating costumes, either heaped an unnecessary burden on the poor soul or compelled him or her to be humiliated by the contrast, and the display of presents also made a distinction between the pupils.

President Bondurant and the finance committee were authorized to borrow $10,000 until the schools receive

DOGS WORK FOR A LIVING.

Eskimo Huskies Training Begins in Puppyland, With 10 Miles a Day.

The Eskimo begins to train his dog for sledge work before it is a month old. One of the most interesting features of Eskimo villages are puppies tied to the pole of a tent. They pull on the rope with all their puppy strength in the effort to break away and join in the frolics of their elders.

Not until a dog bred for pull service is one year old is it put in training for the trail. It begins by running ten miles with the team, then it is dropped out. Next day it runs the same distance. Gradually the distance is increased until it reaches its fifteenth month of life, when it becomes part of the regular service. The life of a small dog is from three to four years. No greater punishment can be inflicted than to lay a dog off from service. When unruly they are often threatened with a lay-off, and with almost human intelligence they seem to understand the disgrace it implies in the eyes of their fellow workers on the trail. All fight to be leaders. A constant spur to an unambitious dog is the "outsider," who will quickly take away the leadership not only in the pull service, but in teams maintained chiefly for the pleasure of the sport. The intelligence of the malamute is remarkable, its scent wonderful, its instinct, no rule, unerring.

Some dogs are better trail followers than others, as some are better leaders. In a blizzard the best of them lose the trail, but invariably find it. When on the trail they never eat but once a day, then at the end of a journey. After feeding, like weary children, they fall asleep and are never quarrelsome. It takes on an average twenty pounds of food a day for a team of eleven dogs on a hard route.—March St. Nicholas.

KENTUCKY

Prize Oration of Paducah High School, by Edward Mitchell.

Kentucky, to one of her native sons, is a synonym of all that is high, noble and inspiring. From the earliest periods of her existence, the name of Kentucky has been honored and revered at home and abroad.

Only a glance at her history is sufficient to make us appreciate her greatness; the perils that her pioneer settlers endured; her achievements in war and peace; her unparalleled growth in power down to the present is a record which could have been made only by a people of superior endowments.

In the early years of the eighteenth century, various hunting parties made their way through the Cumberland gap into the beautiful valley of the Cumberland river. These parties took back to Virginia, glowing accounts of the fertility of the soil, the boundless forests, and the fine rivers, "where the fondest dreams that ever played across the savage's brain might be realized." In the year 1771 a small party, encouraged by these fine reports, struggled across the mountains, and founded the little settlements of Hanesborough and Harrodsburg. There were the first settlements in Kentucky and were the beginning of our great State.

There were many perils and hardships to be endured the first few years of the life of these settlements, but those hardy, freedom-loving pioneers knew no such word as fear. No wonder that Kentucky at once took the first rank in the great sisterhood of states, for she was settled by such people as the Boones, the Harrards, the Breckinridges and the Todds; and the same liberty-loving spirit, the same courage that inspired those brave settlers then, is felt by Kentuckians today. Probably they never dreamed that they were the founders of the greatest state, of the greatest nation on earth, but they were seeking the means of earning a livelihood and making homes for themselves and families. Truly, someone has said that these brave and daring men were the instruments of God in founding homes for a great and God-fearing people. Kentucky is the fifteenth State of our nation, being admitted to the Union in 1792.

But had none in pioneer struggles Kentucky preeminent, but in the wars that followed, her people showed the intrepid bravery and untiring energy.

There were no braver men living than those who left their homes and men. She may be called the mother of families to go and fight the savage Indians, constantly urged on by jealous England. They never wavered once from the call of duty, and what they thought to be right. In the year 1813, when a call was issued for 2,000 volunteers, from the State of Kentucky 4,000 or 5,000 crowded forward eager to defend their country's flag. At the battle of New Orleans, when our men were protected by only a slight wall of dirt and logs, those finely clad, well-armed troops, who had had experience in the war against Napoleon, those veterans of Waterloo, who had never been overcome by any nation on the globe, went down in ignominious defeat before the fire of the brave riflemen of Tennessee and Kentucky. When this war was over the soldiers returned to their homes, conscious that they had performed their duty to its fullest extent, and lived in comparative peace for about 35 years. But the war with Mexico again called America's sons to arms. In this war Kentucky was once more distinguished by the bravery of her soldiers. During the years that followed Kentucky became famous for her great plantations, her fine stock farms and her growing cities.

But when that war broke out, which will always be remembered as the greatest civil war in the annals of history, Kentucky state, of the once United States, which remained neutral. Other states declared themselves neutral at the beginning of the struggle, but Kentucky was the only one which remained true to her declaration.

While this war was in progress many battles were fought on Kentucky advanced step by step, under Kentucky emerged from the struggle with her plantations devastated, her homes destroyed and the fortunes of her people swept away. But with true Kentucky courage and energy they set about repairing their plantations and homes and regaining their lost fortunes; and in the years that have passed since the war Kentucky has advanced step by step, until now she is one of the greatest, the most progressive states, of an "indissoluble Union of Indestructible States." Her cities are again prosperous, her plantations are again flourishing and her stock farms are her pride.

After the civil war the South did not progress very much until within the last decade, but now new life and energy have taken possession of Dixieland, and Kentucky is leading all southern and central states' commercial, professional and literary lines. This glorious state is thought by many to be a place where lawlessness abides, but those illegal acts and depredations committed by riots, mobs and mountaineers are condemned by the better class of people who stand now, as always, for all that is honorable and right.

Kentucky is noted for her great presidents, for it is a curious coincidence that the president of the Confederacy and the war president of the Union were native Kentuckians. She is the producer of great men: Clay, Lincoln, Breckinridge and Davis were Kentuckians, and today we have among this number: Henry Watterson, one of the greatest statesmen of the nation; Nathaniel Schlaer, another very loyal Kentuckian, a man who devoted his life to scientific research and teaching. In the literary field we have James Lane Allen, whose works are predicted to live long after Rudyard Kipling has been forgotten. And in the works of John Fox, Jr., we find portrayed the love he bears his "Old Kentucky Home."

Thus we see that Kentucky has always been first and foremost in all that is brave, honorable and right. Kentucky is old in American history, famous in poetry and song, and we sincerely hope the younger Kentuckians of today will make our future history as bright and illustrious as our past has been.

"Oh, Kentucky, my dear native soil, For whom my warmest wish to heaven is sent,

Long may thy hardy sons of justice toll,

Be it blest with health, and peace, and sweet content,

And, oh, may heaven their simple lives prevent,

From luxuries, contagion, weak and vile,

But on her children, fair and innocent, May the warm sunshine of God's blessing smile."

UNDER THE HAMMER

VALUABLE HOPKINS COUNTY COAL MINES SOLD.

Judge J. B. Hall Pays $71,500 for the Royal and John H. Brasher Buys Another.

Madisonville, Ky., April 8.—Two fine coal mines and mining property were sold at public auction here at the court house, and some lively bidding was indulged in. The property was that of the Chesley Coal company, which recently made an assignment. One of the mines, the Royal, in the suburbs of the city, was bought by Judge J. B. Hall in consideration of $71,500. The other mine, located at Oak Hill, this county, was purchased by John H. Brasher for the Brasher Coal company, paying $16,500. Mr. Brasher, it is said, sold his mine in Muhlenberg county for $135,000. Mr. Brasher stated that he would recognize the Mine Workers' union and that he would employ union men in his new mine. This will mean much to the striking miners in the county, as it will give employment to between 150 and 200 men who are out on strike. The price paid for the property was very reasonable. A large amount of other mining property of considerable value was sold and was bought in by different persons.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Cheap Substitutes and "Just As Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low-grade, impure whiskey, which they tell you is as "good as Duffy's."

It is a cheap concoction and fraud, intended to deceive the people. Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure drugs. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!
Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A facsimile of the genuine bottle, full size, is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle-round, amber colored, and with the name "Duffy's Malt Whiskey Company" blown into the glass. The trademark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

REFUSE IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES

When you ask for DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY be sure you get the genuine which is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey containing medicinal, health-giving qualities. Imitations and substitutes, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand DUFFY'S, and be sure you get it. Be on your guard against refilled bottles.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey promotes health and longevity.

KEEPS THE OLD YOUNG—THE YOUNG STRONG

It is the only whiskey recognized by doctors everywhere as a family medicine.

The genuine is sold by all reliable druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1 a bottle. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for free illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whisky Co., Rochester, N. Y.

LAUNDERING · PLAITED BOSOM SHIRTS

Is the despair of many laundries, for without the bosom ironer, which we have, it is simply impossible to avoid that "hump." We have the only machine of this kind in West Kentucky—but the result is what interests you. It irons smoothly. The button holes or stud holes match. Negligee shirts with buttons are ironed perfectly and without injury. Plaited bosom shirts, when ironed by this machine, come through looking like new; the "hump" is missing.

THE HIDDEN SORRY.

The interstate commerce commission has established by positive proof what everybody knew all along, that certain interests through the agency of holding companies manipulate the big interstate commerce carrying lines with minority of the stock. While we should be uncharitable and blind to our own natural human shortcomings, if we did not give heed to the full freedom of individuals to acquire as much property and power as they can without interfering with the rights of others, and they have the intellect to manage; yet there is a menace in this sort of concentration, especially when the real owners of the controlling stock are operating under an alias. The shipping and consuming public and the stockholding public are interested.

The former is interested, because the same people are manipulating the stock of competing railroads and of the big trusts that ship over their lines, and they naturally may be expected to favor themselves as against competitors. The stockholders are interested, because the railroads under this system, instead of rivaling each other in economy of management and returns on their investments, pay most attention to manipulating the earnings in deals among themselves. Since they own both the material shipped and the carrier, it makes no difference to them from which source they derive the profit; but it does to the people, who buy railroad stock.

There is another hidden industrial secret that the X-ray of publicity will reveal.

ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

The Calloway County Times, of Murray, has arrayed itself on the side of law and order and speaks to its people in these words:

"A detachment of state militia has been sent to Calloway to assist the civil officers in putting an end to a state of lawlessness termed 'night riders,' which has developed in the northwest and northeast part of our county. While perhaps not exceeding 50 men have been engaged in this, and the Times is persuaded that most of these are thoughtless boys, still such things cannot exist in Calloway, and the solid conservative citizenship of our county will not stand for it—or support any such conduct."

"While we believe the authorities have the matter well in hand, and that no more depredations will occur in this county, still it behoves every good citizen to talk to the young men under his influence and tell them that these acts are felonious and that sooner or later the courts of justice will execute the laws relative thereto. These boys should be taught by their seniors that even the cutting of telephone wires is an offense punished with confinement in the state penitentiary. We do not believe that all the trouble in this county is based on tobacco, for everybody knows that there will not be an independent prizer in this county another year, for the simple reason that all of the tobacco will and should be in the association, so with the association fight already won, we think a good deal of the trouble is of a personal nature. Suppose the aggrieved parties retaliate by killing some of those who have mistreated them—for many of their names are already known—to say nothing of confinement in the penitentiary. Would not this shock older and discreet citizenship?"

Gentlemen, you must warn the boys of the dauber and foolishness of such conduct. It is the duty of all good people to talk against and discourage any and all violations of law. Remember that law and order is worth more than any cause, yes, worth more than everything else combined, for what will life and property be worth without law to protect them?"

A HUMBLE HERO.

Dispatches from Paducah say that Henry Jackson, of Christian county, says the Courier-Journal, with his wife and children, have arrived there after having tramped 100 miles, sleeping in the woods, in the hope of getting out of Kentucky. Mr. Jackson was visited by night riders and invited to join an expedition. He declined to consider the proposition. A second invitation was declined and he was ordered to leave the state or to prepare for death.

It requires exceptional courage for a poor man with five children and no funds to decline to join a mob which promises immunity on the one hand and threatens death upon the other. It seems that Henry Jackson had that courage. Without means of transportation he started, with his wife and his children, to walk to the Ohio river and escape to a state where the law and not the lawless governors. Sleeping in the fields and woods taxes the vitality of a healthy man in March or April. It is especially bad for babies. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and their children have arrived in Paducah after fourteen days of exposure, hunger and humiliation endured because Mr. Jackson was too much of a man to become an outlaw. It was a brand of courage something higher than that of the bravo who rides the road by night, protected by the size of the pack with which he prowls, and secure in the belief that the law holds him and his family and his home and his belief.

My commission expires January 10, 1912.

Last Night 1010 Yards of Silk

Here is an illustration of the tremendous power of advertising which will interest every man who has anything to sell:

Last night when The Sun went to press E. Guthrie Co. had a thousand and ten yards of a certain kind of silk on their shelves. As a special offer today they offered it at 15¢ a yard, in a small announcement in The Sun.

The store opened at 7:30 this morning. At 10 o'clock every thread of the silk was gone. A strong testimonial to the values you say? Yes, but how many people would have known of them if they hadn't been advertised?

REESE FISHER IS SLIGHTLY BETTER ---ASSAILANT HELD

Henton, Ky., April 8. (Special) —Reese Fisher, the young man who was stabbed last night in a brawl by Lon Holley, is so much improved this afternoon that his physician entertains hope of his recovery. He has one knife stab in his side, reaching toward his heart, and two in the back, and a scratch on the shoulder. Holley is in jail. John Hampton and Elvis Henderson, their companions, who were locked up last night, were released today, and Holley will have his preliminary this afternoon. The men were touring Benton with a cab full of whisky, and Mrs. Hampton removed the liquor from the rig, while they were out. They went into the house to get it, when the trouble started. It is said the attack was unprovoked. Holley has been in trouble before, and had a fight Monday night. Fisher is the son of the late County Judge J. M. Fisher, a brother of City Attorney John Fisher and the son-in-law of Dr. H. T. Hall, of Paducah. He is about 30 years old. Holley is 28 years old, and the son of Andrew Holley.

On being told that there was only the slightest chance for his recovery, Reese Fisher made his dying statement this morning to the doctors. He said he was sicker and that Louie Holly did the cutting without provocation. Trouble has existed between the men for some time, and Fisher says Holly advanced on him yesterday afternoon and with an oath said, "I have you where I want you now." Fisher has distributed his property to his relatives. Fisher exonerated everyone but Holly.

E. D. C. Chauder April Meeting, Paducah chapter. United Daughters of the Confederacy met yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house. Miss Mary K. Sowell was the hostess for the April meeting. There was a large attendance of the chapter and three new members were added.

The chapter unanimously passed resolutions of respect and sympathy to Mrs. Cornell Branch Stone, of New Orleans, on the death of her only son. Mrs. Stone is president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. A copy of the resolutions will be sent to her.

The chapter voted to adopt the Lee building of the city schools and will beautify it inside and outside, making it in every way worthy of the name of the great general of the Confederacy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tucker, of Brookport, who were married at Metropolis on March 18, were in the city today on route home from their bridal trip.

Mrs. E. B. Richardson, 320 South Third street, has returned from a several weeks' stay in St. Louis, where her son, Mr. Eugene Richardson, was ill of typhoid-pneumonia. Mr. Richardson is improving and will be able to come home in two weeks.

Mrs. H. J. Howling, of Twelfth and Jackson streets, has returned from Fair Dealing, where she attended her father's funeral.

The police say it looks like suicide, but the family say it was highwaymen.

MURDER OR SUICIDE?

Springfield, Mo., April 8.—Judge J. A. Fink, a prominent attorney, died this morning without regaining consciousness, having been found at midnight mortally wounded by a revolver shot. Near by the body was an empty purse, which the family says contained $100. A revolver with one chamber empty was near the body. The police say it looks like suicide, but the family say it was highwaymen.

The Tame Turkey.

Mr. Polk Miller of Richmond flew into the editorial office of the Almanack like a fresh breeze from the south a few days ago and was promptly asked, of course, for the latest darky story in Virginia. He said it was about substituting a wild turkey for a tame turkey. One of his friends bought a turkey from old Uncle Ephram and asked him, in making the purchase, if it was a tame turkey. "Oh, yalls sir, it's a tame turkey of right."

"Now Ephram, are you sure it's a tame turkey?"

"Oh, yalls sir, there's no sort o' doubt 'bout dat. It's a tame turkey of right."

He consequently bought the turkey, and a day or two later when eating it he came across several shot. Later on when he met old Ephram on the street, he said: "Well, Ephram, you told me that was a tame turkey, but I found some shot in it when I was eating it."

"Oh, dat war a tame turkey of right," was Uncle Ephram's reiterated rejoinder, "but de fac' is, boss, use gwine to tell her in confidence, dat dem ole shot was intended for me."—Advertiser's Almanack, 1908.

INDIGESTION.

With its companions, heartburn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, swollen skin, foul-tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The terrible treatment will cure all these troubles.

Work will be begun at once on Broadwater east of Third street from Ninth street to Eleventh street. Bid for the construction of the street with asphalt, brick and bitumastic will be secured, and all bids will be opened May 12. All the ordinances have been passed and the work is ready to let as soon as bids are received, and sewer connections are all made.

Repairs will be made to the bridge over Island Creek at Fourth street instead of the erection of a new bridge at present, as the board of public works decided last night in regular session. The floor of the bridge is in such bad condition that constant repairs have to be made, and on the recommendation of City Engineer Washington, a practical bridge may be secured to make the improvements. Bids will be asked for, but the board did not decide whether to use heart pine or oak. The iron rod on the bridge need to be tightened to prevent it from swaying, and the new floor is needed badly.

Work will be begun at once on Broadwater and Jefferson street from Ninth street to Eleventh street. Bid for the construction of the street with asphalt, brick and bitumastic will be secured, and all bids will be opened May 12. All the ordinances have been passed and the work is ready to let as soon as bids are received, and sewer connections are all made.

The bad condition of Broadwater east of Third street was discussed but nothing definite was done. The surface has many bad holes, but the holes with new bricks would make a bump in the street, and on the recommendation of City Engineer Washington nothing was done, as in a year the street will have to be repaired.

Merchants on Broadway between Third and Second streets had a letter before the board, asking that improvements be made to the alley in rear of the buildings. The alleys are paved with cobble stones, and walls stand between them. All the members of the board were unanimous for an improvement and will ask the city for an ordinance making the improvement with brick. On reconstruction of alleys the property owners pay half of the cost and the city half.

Contracts for the graveling of Clark street, between Tenth street and Eleventh street, and for Twenty-second street, and Twenty-third street, in Glenwood, have been let to Contractor Ed Terrell, but the work has not yet progressed far, and as the time limit has expired the board notified Mr. Terrell his contract has been abrogated. It is possible the board will secure bids under the same ordinance, and has the work begun at once, as the property owners on the streets have tried to get the improvements for a year.

Owners of gravel pits near the city desire to show the board the advantages of their gravel, and next Friday morning the board with City Engineer Washington and Street Inspector Bell, will visit all of the gravel pits in President Rudy's automobile, and see the run of the gravel in each pit. A new driving belt is needed at the city light plant, and Superintendent J. O. Kehler was ordered to secure bids. The cost will be about $250. The Casualty Company of America filed a report that the company has inspected the fixtures at the light department, and both were found in good condition.

Property owners on Jefferson street between Twelfth street and Thirteenth street want an alley, but one property owner has not dedicated property and nothing can be done at present.

The complaint of Hugh Hurley and Ed Tyree, of drainage water passing over private property on South Fourth street was brought up, and a strong good weather had the water will be turned aside.

The street at Furley Place need grading and graveling, and the board decided to ask the council for the ordinance.

A local firm asked that sewer piping be used by the city, but motion of Mr. Katterjohn to continue the use of the present pipe was passed unanimously.

The pay roll of the street, light and sewer departments were allowed for the two weeks.

Permitston was granted the Post Telegraph company to erect a "barrel" sign at Second street and Broadway. The sign will be around corner of the building and must not protrude more than 5 inches over the sidewalk, and will be four feet high.

Street Inspector Bell was ordered to notify Eli Guthrie & company that a wooden sign across the sidewalk must come down, because no permit sign has been granted.

The Anchor Paving and Roofing company, of Evansville, notified the board that improvements would be made in the spring. Attention will be called to the contractor of the sidewalk and curbing on South Third street, and improvements made. Seven poles are in the brick street on South Third street, between Jefferson street and Kentucky avenue, and the contractor will be notified of them.

President Rudy and Louis Kolb were present last, and the next meeting of the board will be held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. The evening hour is inconvenient for the board and the meeting time was changed.

CENTENARY OF ESTABLISHMENT OF THE DIOCESE OF LOUISVILLE IS OBSERVED

Catholics Probably Will Have Celebration at Date to be Fixed Later.

The first bishop, and he is now about the same age as was Bishop Flaget when called to his final rest.

May Celebrate Later.

The fact that the centenary of the diocese of Louisville occurs during Passion week will preclude any festivities being indulged in in celebration of the event, but it is likely that Bishop McCloskey will set apart a date later in the year when the event will be observed with appropriate exercises. In New York and Philadelphia, where the centenary of the diocese occurs the same time as in the diocese of Louisville, special preparations are being made to celebrate the event, and in Boston, the seat of the other see, erected also on the same date, preparations will be made for celebration at some date during the year. At a meeting held last week in New York Archdiocese Farley outlined the program of religious and civil celebrations to be held there in honor of the event during the week beginning Tuesday, April 28.

SEVEN CENT CUT IN COUNTY TAX

FISCAL COURT TAKES TWO MORE CENTS OF LEVY LATER.

FIVE NEW CONCRETE BRIDGES ORDERED
BUILT IN MCCRECKEN COUNTY THIS SUMMER.

SOME OF ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.

The road supervisor was instructed to furnish the fiscal court an estimate of the probable cost of graveling the Woodville and Lovelinsville roads from the point where the gravel now ceases to the county line. The supervisor was told not to make any permanent improvements on roads until ordered by the court.

The improvements ordered were five bridges to be built at an aggregate cost, not to exceed $8,500. All will be built of concrete, one will be built across Island Creek on the Illinois road, one three miles from Paducah on the Blandville road, one on the Woodville road 18 miles from Paducah and another near Rossington on the Ogden Landing road. The supervisor was ordered to grade every dirt road and repair all culverts that are in bad order.

After the county tax rate had been fixed at 79 cents on the $1,000 worth of property at the morning session of the fiscal court yesterday, the question was reconsidered before the board adjourned and two cents taken off, bringing the tax rate to 68 cents, a reduction of 7 cents from last year. The reduction was made by taking one cent each off the levy for roads and bridge fund and the county levy making the road levy 29 cents, county levy 20 cents, sinking fund 18 cents, pauper levy 10 cents. The amount at which the tax rate was finally fixed is but two cents more than was recommended by Judge Highfoot. Two of the magistrates, Highfoot and Brundfoot, voted for the 66 cent rate recommended by the judge.

The following accounts were allowed:

Kate Shelds for Emma Simmons, $15; W. T. Hyrd for Mrs. Magee, $20; W. M. Holdry, for Jane Combs, $15; Ellen Campbell for infant child, $18; John Thompson for Mrs. Burns, $15; M. B. The allowances made out of the county levy were: David J. Levy, $19.85; Jackson Foundry and Machine company, $3; Jake Bliderman Grocery company, $19.85; Ed. Hanuman, $15.00; Paducah Water company, $55.16; Pittsburg Coal company, $13.72; Henry A. Petter, $3.30; Noble & Velser, $19.12; Broadfoot Bros., $1.80; Mrs. George, $2; West Kentucky Coal company, $54.30; James Baker, county jailor, $143.40; Frank Baker, $111; East Tennessee Telephone company, $7.84; Paducah Light and Power company, $12.80; A. N. Gilson, $9; Circuit Clerk Joe A. Miller, $12.60; Ratterjohn & Dailey, $242.50.

Out of the road and bridge fund F. E. Ghoshon was allowed $5.50 and E. H. Johnson, $12.50.

Good Soldiers.

Concerning the soldiers at Murray the Chilhowie Times says:

"They are conducting themselves very nicely, and are patrolling the country districts at night where the night riders have been doing their work. Circuit court convenes next Monday, and Judge Cook told a Times man that he would call special attention of the grand juries to the Ku Klux law and direct a united effort to bring the violators to just punishment."

Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alternative tonic is sold under guarantee not all druggists.

STONE-FOLK FIGHT WARMS.

Governor's Followers Hold the Valley Township Convention.

De Soto, Mo., April 8.—The Folk-Stone fight in Jefferson county is waxing warm. Township conventions were held in the various townships and from reports obtainable the Folk men were pretty badly "rolled" in the selection of delegates. At the convention which is to be held in Hillsboro 136 delegates will be present, and from present indications it will be one of the most stormy conventions ever held in Jefferson county. The Stone men had things their own way in Valley township, and selected twenty-nine delegates to the county convention. Dr. A. H. Hamel, president of the state board of health, whose home is in this city, with a number of his friends, bolted the convention and walked out.

Former Congressman Sam Byrnes, with William Welch, a former appointee of Governor Folk, are leading the Stone forces, while Dr. W. E. Gibson, representative of Jefferson county, P. P. Hilliard, chairman of the state board of commissioners of asylum No. 4, and Dr. A. H. Hamel are looking after Mr. Folk's interests.

THREE STITCHES IN HEART.

New York Man Still Lives and is Expected to Survive.

New York, April 8.—With three stitches in his heart, twelve stitches in the pericardium and two ribs removed, Robert Ingalls, 23 years old, of Vonkers, is making a fight for life in St. Joseph's hospital in that city. In an alteration in the street with a Pole early today, Ingalls was stabbed in the heart with a knife. The surgeon says they believe he will survive the injury and the operation.

Ingalls conversed with other patients in the surgical ward.

Wink—"He didn't use to dodge his flesh relatives, but he does now."

Bliss—"Hoos, eh? And as poor as he is?"

Wink—"Sure. All his rich relatives have bought automobiles."

WANT LID OFF DANCING.

Conference Asked Elimination of Amusement Clause.

New York, April 8.—The New York Methodist conference adopted the resolution asking for the elimination of clause No. 248 of the book of discipline, which prohibits card playing, theaters, dancing and other amusements. The question will now come before the general conference in the shape of a recommendation at the request of the New York conference.

It is expected, however, that the resolution will not pass the general conference without some discussion and voting against it. The conference, by a vote of 116 to 16, went on record today as favoring a return to the system of limited pastorate that existed in the church for more than a century until a few years ago.

BOYCOTT AGAINST JAPAN.

Feeling Aroused by Tatsu Muru Incident Spreading.

Canton, April 8.—The boycott against the Japanese, arising out of the trouble between Japan and China over the seizure and subsequent release of the Tatsu Maru, is spreading rapidly. Mass meetings have been held with the object of impressing upon the Chinese the necessity of making the boycott of Japanese products and manufactures as far-reaching as possible. Despite a torrential rain, more than a thousand women dressed in white, as an emblem of mourning, attended a meeting held for this purpose, speeches being made denouncing everything that pertained to Japan.

The girls wanted me to come to help fill up.

Well?

Here I am. Where's the grub?—Kansas City Journal.

THEATRICAL NOTES

At The Kentucky.

The Mills company received a large patronage last night regardless of the rain to witness the great labor drama "Man's Inhumanity." The play was well received and all parts were well played, which is one of the good features of this company. A request was made to the manager to repeat the play Saturday night. Tonight a strong sensational drama "Under Southern Moss," will be presented. Like all southern dramas it is sensational, plenty of good comedy and a very pleasing production, and as it deals with life in the mountains of Tennessee, of which much is already known, there will no doubt be a large house. Today and Saturday special matinees.

Crystal Theater.

The bill offered at the Crystal this week is a deviation from variety from that which has been on for several weeks and it is admitted by those who have attended that this week's bill furnishes that part of variety the spice of life, which equals the spice course of a well chosen formal dinner.

Hale and Hardy are slated as the "human talking machines," and they are rightly billed. Their act consists of fifteen minutes of singing and talking.

Next come the Rich Duo, Jack and Miss Agnes. Miss Rich is a vivacious comely little woman who possesses that power which a few members of her sex have, the ability to be funny. No less clever is her team mate, Jack Rich.

The great Heighley in a high-class slack wire act, stepping to the beautiful strains of "L. Estudiantina" waltz and performing some remarkable feats.

Movielog pictures are presented some time before the vaudeville performance is finished to allow the change of stage setting.
